Dear Dick:

You suggested that I write you and remind you to call Mr. Allen Dulles. Mr. Dulles' number is:

[Redacted]

Mr. Dulles has been anxious to see you, but is fully aware that you have been exceptionally busy since your return. He has been out of the City, but I understand that Mr. Dulles will be in his office this week. I know that you want to see him, and he has hoped that you both could get together soon.

This is just a note on this particular conference, and I shall be in touch with you further on the very wonderful Testimonial Dinner.

With the very best, always,

Sincerely,

James E. Mooney

Admiral Richard E. Byrd
